Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

What if..... What if tomorrow morning we awoke to find ourselves in a different world.? What if our freedom no longer existed? More importantly, what if our religious freedom were gone? What would we do? Where would we turn? Would we have any regrets? Would we wish we had.....? It would be too late to examine ourselves. It would be too late to make the needed changes within our lives. It would be too late to fix the things we need to fix within our own lives and in the relationships we have or don't have with others.

Although God is merciful, there is a time for everything. When will that time run out for us? Do we dare test God. Or, do we take this opportunity and turn now? It has been said that the prosperity and the destruction of a nation correlates directly with the faithfulness or lack of faithfulness of God's people. If this is true, God's people had better get serious. We are in big trouble.

Shall we invite such judgments? Or, shall we stop our selfish lifestyles and beg God for merciful intervention?

Are we asking him to intervene to make our own lives and lives of our families easier? If so, we are asking amiss. Are we asking for Divine intervention so we can better serve Him and His people? God cares about our hearts? He sees what we don't.

Over the past 40 years or so, God's great mercy gave unto us the keys to freedom (Deliverance). Yet, it appears as though we have neglected, abused, abandoned, or ignored these precious truths. If God's people do not embrace and appreciate such truths and walk in the paths of Deliverance then it is very possible God's people will be turned over to lies and forced to walk in paths of bondage. Which path will you choose? He commands us to do as He did. Yet, God will not force us. Nevertheless, He will have His way even if it means taking away everything from us. He will get us to do what He wants. How do you want Him to have to work in your life?

Don't run. Don't hide. Don't be ashamed. He has made a way. Come and share your deepest troubles. He can heal them. He can make you whole. Give Him a chance. Let Him show you He is real. He is the same.

If you are one of "those" who thinks they don't have a problem.... What would Jesus say?

Redeeming the time.
