Michael A. Thierer, PASTOR

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

“Oh, Jesus is the Rock in a weary land, a shelter in the time of storm.” The words of this song by Vernon Charlesworth still hold true today. As Christians, we embrace such comforting words. As storm clouds continue to thicken and raging waves beat, shall we be able to reassure ourselves with such truthful words? Just as when we were unsaved the Lord called "come unto me and I will give thee rest". Similarly, he beckons unto his weary children.

Dare we ask ourselves if with the same intensity and desire do we also embrace the words to the song Trust and Obey? If not, no need to fret. The solution is simple. At this very moment, we can admit to Him our shallowness and rebellion, and then turn the paths of destruction. As Christians, too many of our ways seem right in our eyes, but not the Lord's. We can continue to turn at this very moment by beginning to rebuke the Devil and applying ourselves in the battle. This is exactly what our Savior demonstrated to us in Luke 4. He showed us that within the dark time of those forty days and forty nights Jesus didn't take it upon himself to back the devil off. No, through submission and obedience to His Heavenly Father, Jesus trusted and spoke those simple yet powerful words, "Get thee behind me Satan!"

Remember that little booklet? Booklet number four entitled Warfare Prayers? Remember when so many of God's people joined together in prayer to destroy the works of the Devil? It is His desire for God's people to act as one in His name against the Devil and his minions. Though the skies howl above us we can overcome in His name if we stand together in obedience and prayer.

To those faithful who have stood by the stuff. “Consider Him lest ye be weary and faint.” Remember, loose angels to help you pursuing faith. Loose strength, courage and hope in Jesus name. Ask God to help you and us to finish the task He has given all of us. For His name, glory, and honor.

“Trust and obey, for there's no other way, to be happy in Jesus.. but to trust and obey.”

Pastor Michael Thierer
