Michael A. Thlerer, PASTOR

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

The battle is furious. Our enemies are fierce. The threats of barbarism are nearing. Shall we pick up our spiritual weapons and fight, or, shall we continue to simply shake our heads at such horrors and do nothing? We can be sure that the Devil's dupes are doing their jobs. If we compare our commitment unto theirs would we come up short? Or, would we excel in faithfulness, obedience and willingness to serve our Lord?

If we continue in shallowness and disobedience the battles will become more and more violent. Our song shall be that of continuous defeat. Brethren, the only hope we have is in God's great mercy. Dare we embrace it? Dare we admit where we have forgotten or forsaken Him? Where does God fall on the list of our daily duties? Where does He fall within the daily thoughts of our minds?

Let us not forget. Christ came to destroy the works of the Devil. This truth had been hidden since the time of the Apostles. Yet, over recent years, by God's great mercy, He brought it back unto His people. We do know how to destroy the works of the enemy. Jesus Christ has given us this power and it is His command for us to follow His example. Yet, what have we done with this truth? If we look around, we shall see overwhelming evidence of Christian neglect. Where does our personal responsibility fall regarding such neglect? If you are the one who never quit, if you are the one who never turned aside, good for you. We praise God.

We must ask ourselves when was the last time we picked up our Warfare Prayers and consistently, fervently, doubtlessly, faithfully attacked the enemy? Or, are we just hearers of the Word and NOT doers? When was the last time we sought His face about our own lives and asked Him what it is He wants from us and then did it? When was the last time we fasted to break the power of the Devil in order for another to be set free?

God wants His people to succeed. He wants us to have victory so He can be praised. Yet, He is always faithful unto His Word. He cannot bless us if we are unwilling, disobedient and unfaithful to do what He wants us to do. What more will it take before God's people turn back unto Him? Shall barbarism get close enough to enter the doors of our own homes?

Let us use this Conference to push our refresh buttons. Let us become transparent before the Lord and remember who He is and what it is He wants from us. May we use the rest of our days to hold back time with true repentant, obedient hearts and continual hope in God's mercy. May this great mercy hold back the barbarism which so eagerly screams as it anxiously awaits its chance to prey upon us.

Yours to make Christ known loved and enjoyed,

Pastor Michael Thierer
