MICHAEL A. THIERER,

PASTOR

Dear Men of God,

Once again, we are at that time of year when HBC is busily preparing for our 2016 Men's Leadership Conference. The Conference dates are January 28th – 31st. Through the years, our Men's Conference has been the cornerstone of our four annual Workshops sponsored each year during the months of April, July and October. From the local membership of HBC to the growing family of those deliverance workers, being a part of this special get-together has had a tremendous impact upon the lives of all who attend.

Have you ever heard the term, "that person is half baked"? We find this referenced about Ephraim in Hosea 7:8. The book of Hosea depicts a love story between God and us. God is portrayed as a father, husband, lion, mama bear, rain, etc. We are portrayed as being sick, unripe, chaff and as a women in labor. God is all, we are nothing. Nonetheless even in our rebellion, God continues to reach out to us in His eternal love. In turn, we continue to turn our backs. God provides for us water, food, oil and finances. We waste those provisions in the devils dens. God desires us to walk in His knowledge. We reject that too. Hosea also tells us that alcohol fragments and takes away our hearts. As men of God, do we listen and put away that poison from our lives? No! We find or make up whatever excuse we can to justify it.

The Word tells us because we will not frame our doings and turn to God, we open ourselves to the spirit of whoredom. Fellows, then we start serving the gods of Hollyweird, the gods of sports, the gods of sensuality and carnality, etc. When God starts convicting our lives because of sin, we blame a politician, a political party, or a special interest group instead of owning it.

God came to Adam after his sin in the garden and asked him what happened. Immediately, Adam passed the buck and blamed Eve. Men, brothers, this is the type of denial that is common to us. We must recognize this flaw in our gender and character and deal with it correctly through God's Word. Nothing else will suffice!

At our Men's Conference we will be dealing with these written things and other like issues. We will have well qualified speakers, knowledgeable prayer warriors and a host of other brothers who have gone through the thick and thin of Satan's wiles and found victory. Jesus tells us to taste him and see that he is good. Come and fellowship with us at our Men's Conference. No novices here. We have 30 years of dealing directly with issue common to men. You owe it to yourself to check us out and see that we are good!

Yours to make Christ loved, known and enjoyed!

Michael Thierer, Pastor
