HEGEWISCH BAPTIST CHURCH

MICHAEL A. THIERER, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Brethren, the Devil will do all he can to get us to give up and quit. What do we do when sorrows like sea billows roll? As a wise man once said: while fighting the battle some laid down to rest.... and died. Just because we take a rest or quit does not mean our enemy will rest (or quit) too. The Devil never gives up. You can count on it.

We must realize that we may not always win the battle. Needless to say, it does matter what we do with our fall. We must remember we are not wrestling (a contest between two opponents when each is determined to overthrow the other) against flesh and blood. Rather, against spiritual entities who can see us but we cannot see them. Entities who deal from the bottom of the deck. Entities who have authoritative power? An enemy who never gets tired. How can we ever win such a battle if we do not know Jesus Christ and how to apply His Word (especially through binding and loosening) within our lives? Saints, we already have the tactics to fight this unseen enemy who is determined to wear us out and beat us down.

Yes, we do have the whole armor of God. But, do we have the whole armor of God on us? Have we done all to stand? Our peace can be found in the Scripture. We have One who is higher than all principalities and powers. One who has put all things under His feet. "Great Is Thy Faithfulness", "He Hideth My Soul", we can hear the heartthrob of such songwriters who penned these marvelous hymns. Obviously, they found the answer.

We can remind ourselves of Paul who persecuted the Christians then got back up at Damascus. We can remember Peter who also got back up after being rebuked for the wrong way he treated the brethren. Or, after he denied Christ. Yes, he wept bitterly. But, he continued in service to His Lord. 1 John 1:9 is our clean slate. We can use it like we use a bar of soap. When is the last time we took such a cleansing bath. It works the very moment we use it. It brings us back into proper fellowship with our Lord.

We are supposed to look out for one another. We need to remind ourselves to reach out when we are in trouble and accept help from our brethren. We confess our sins (faults) one unto another that we may be healed. All in all, we can get back up. We can help one another. We can pick up each other. Deliverance may help enable us to better do this.

We would love to fellowship with you at the conference. You will find an abundance of information that you may use to clear out demons and their bogus doctrines. Additionally, you will find down to earth believers (just like you) at HBC. It's a 'come as you are' party. We hope to see you here.

Yours to make Christ known loved and enjoyed!

Michael Thierer, Pastor
