HEGEWISCH BAPTIST CHURCH

Michael A. Thierer, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

There is a beautiful simplicity in the provision Christ has given His church: the authority to command and cast out the evil spirits that slow down, stop, or even reverse our spiritual growth. These are not only blatant sins, but also the hidden strongholds and filthy attitudes that disrupt our communion with the body of Christ and dull our love for the living truth of His Word.

The truth of deliverance has long remained an open secret, yet it was part of Jesus’ work from the very beginning. “For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil” (1 John 3:8).

Religious spirits whisper that we just need to try harder to put on more of an act, polish the outside, and wear our Christianity like a filthy rag. But striving in the flesh cannot produce holiness. “Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?” (Galatians 3:3).

Some who recognize the reality of demons have become fearful of witches and the power of darkness, as though the enemy were greater than our Savior. But the Bible declares, “Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world” (1 John 4:4). We are not called to cower, but to stand in the authority of Jesus’ name.

True spiritual freedom requires a holy fear of God and a humble submission to the order of our Savior’s instruction. “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7). Deliverance does not begin with shouting at demons, but with bowing before the Lord.

Jesus Christ can accomplish in one moment of true deliverance what years of our self-willed struggle in the flesh never could. Are you ready to lay down the exhausting burden of self-effort and yield to the power of your Savior? “For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure” (Philippians 2:13). Just as we cannot save ourselves, we cannot sanctify ourselves. We must let Him cleanse us completely. “Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God” (2 Corinthians 7:1).

We warmly invite you to the Hegewisch Baptist Church Fall Deliverance Workshop, October 23-26, 2025, in Highland, Indiana. Christ has given His church the grace to walk in the truth of deliverance, with seasoned workers who know how to help God’s people take out the Lord’s trash. It is our prayer that you will join us, and that you will leave this conference walking closer to Jesus, more sensitive to the Holy Spirit, and freer than when you came!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Michael Thierer
