HEGEWISCH BAPTIST CHURCH

Michael A. Thierer, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Bible says Jesus “went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil” (Acts 10:38). That was His ministry. Somewhere along the way, the church decided it would not be ours.

When Jesus came off the ship in Mark 5, He encountered a man living among the tombs. Driven and tormented by a legion of unclean spirits, this man wore no clothes, cut himself with stones, cried night and day, and could not be bound. No man could tame him.

Jesus commanded the unclean spirits to come out, and they went.

After the man was delivered from the legion, he was found sitting, clothed, and in his right mind. He then asked to remain with Jesus.

Mark 5:19 states: “Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.”

The compassion of Jesus Christ for those who are bound cannot be overstated.

Deliverance remains available to the church today by the authority of Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Most Christians today are not living outwardly among the tombs. But many are tormented inwardly, and the marks of bondage are plainly seen throughout the modern church.

Some deny deliverance altogether. Others claim to believe it, but have confused knowing facts about deliverance with actually receiving deliverance. Still others play church and play deliverance, while the devil makes a mockery of them. The devil is pleased when people believe deliverance is not real. He is just as pleased when they assume they are free while remaining bound.

Knowledge about deliverance is not deliverance.

Are there areas of your life where you are still walking among the tombs? When true deliverance comes, the thing you have fought for years can be gone, as if you never had it. We have heard this testimony again and again, and some of us can give it ourselves.

Please join us for the Hegewisch Baptist Church 137th Deliverance Workshop in Highland, Indiana on July 23-26, 2026. We will have singing, preaching, deliverance, breaking of bread, and fellowship among the saints, all in the love of Jesus Christ.

We endeavor to stand on the word of God in faith, to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and to follow the pattern of the church in the book of Acts. We warmly invite you to join us and hope to see you there!

Yours to make Christ known, loved, and understood,

Pastor Michael Thierer
